

RECALL NOTICE

TRIGGERTECH ANNOUNCES RECALL OF CARBIDE TRIGGERS

Hazard: Rollers on the triggers can crack, causing the weapon to discharge without trigger activation, posing a risk of an injury to the user or bystander. No injuries have been reported to date.

Recalled Product: TriggerTech carbide triggers – specifically, the Rem 700 Carbide Trigger; the AR15 Carbide Trigger; and the Excalibur, Mission, Killer Instinct, and Parker Crossbow Triggers – sold by TriggerTech from June 2015 to August 2016.

Remedy: Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled triggers and contact TriggerTech for a free replacement trigger with stainless steel rollers. If the recalled item has been discontinued, TriggerTech will offer a full refund.
